ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

What to wear

Consider the concept of layering. The first layer should consist of wool, which sits closest to the body, followed by a middle layer, and finally, a wind and waterproof outer layer. While down insulation provides warmth, it is not advisable for activities where moisture is a factor.

Rental for a winter suit and winter boots is priced at 400 NOK per day.

Additionally, woolen underwear is available for purchase at the lodge.

Restaurant

The Bjørnfjell Restaurant is open daily for breakfast, lunch, and dinner.

We kindly request that you pre-book a table. Our hosts are delighted to provide information about the evening's menu; we encourage you to select your menu in advance. Additionally, if you have any allergies or dietary requirements, we would greatly appreciate your informing us beforehand.

Package reservation

The described package is available upon request.

Please note that the program can be adjusted before the final confirmation to meet your specific needs.

If you have any suggestions for change or other wishes, let us know and we would be happy to send you an updated itinerary.

Terms & conditions can be read on www.bjornfjell.com.

Your trip is protected through the Norwegian Travel Guarantee Fund (Reisegarantifondet).

All required package information can be found on our website, at the bottom of the home page.

Do not hesitate to contact the booking team at Bjørnfjell Mountain Lodge if you have any questions!
